

DIGITAL FILM & VIDEO

ROB WENZEK

FACULTY

Rob Wenzek is a film production professional and educator who holds a Master's Degree with Distinction in Film Production from the University of Staffordshire. Rob's 20 plus years of film production experience combined with 19 years of teaching experience make him a well-rounded instructor with a unique skill set. Rob has worked in many roles on numerous productions including as editor for the multi-award winning feature Down River (2013), and as writer-director on the multi-award winning comedy, The Prodigal Dad (2018), which is scheduled for release on digital platforms in the autumn of 2021. Some of his most recent work can be viewed locally at the Britannia Mine Museum where he served as Editor, Composer, and Post Production Supervisor for the multi-screen educational experience BOOM.

Robert Wenzek has mentored hundreds of music videos and short films at LaSalle College Vancouver, where he teaches visual storytelling, music video production, documentary production, short film production, screenwriting, directing, and all aspects of post-production since 2002.

