AMY HERNDON

DIPLOMA IN FASHION DESIGN | 2016

Amy is a Pattern Maker and the Founder and Creative Director of [-ization] Studio, an experimental womenswear/unisex line with urban streetwear influences. Her collections have been featured in the Vancouver Fashion Week runway each season since 2018.

“Get all the experiences you can and network with people in the industry. Learn as many skills as possible because they all relate, you need to know how to sew to make patterns and you need to know how to make patterns to design. Nothing is unnecessary knowledge and you have to be good at it all to be taken seriously.”
